civilians of the Hebrew faith for the Passover ceremony, April 23rd, 1913, at 7:30 p. m. at the Odd Fellows' hall.
Luncheon will be served.

Arthur C. Alexander, surveyor, is at present employed in searching for a lost kuleana in town. The property was leased about thirty years ago to a Chinese, but in the march of progress its boundaries have been obliterated. Mr. Alexander says instances of the same kind are numerous.

In case the large number of rare birds which are contained in his collection are not sold today, Joseph Ellis, the birdman, will depart on the Makura tomorrow for Seattle where, he says, he has been assured that he can easily dispose of his entire stock.
Ellis, however, still entertains a slight hope that some public-spirited person will purchase the birds and place them in an aviary in one of the local parks.

Dr. Syng Man Rhee, the noted Korean leader and religious worker who arrived in Honolulu some months ago, will speak at Central Union church tomorrow morning, at which time he will tell the interesting story of that part of his life which he spent in prison in the Hermit Kingdom, following his conviction as a conspirator against the Japanese government. The public is invited to attend the service.

A number of enraged citizens of Waikiki have taken up arms in the endeavor to locate a dog poisoner who has lately been operating in that section of the city. Five dogs, all of them thoroughbreds and very valuable, have been poisoned within the last three days, it is said, and two others died from poison a few weeks ago. An investigation by Dr. A. R.
Rowatt showed that the poison had been placed on meat and then fed to the dogs.

Secretary Wood, of the promotion committee, is preparing a pamphlet for delivery to tourists upon their arrival in Honolulu, requesting them to make use of the rooms of the committee and before leaving to inform the committee if they have any complaints to make regarding accommodations, transportation, etc. On the other hand, if they have any compliments to offer, they are requested to write these out and leave the manuscript with the secretary.

committee has been informed by letter that Eugene Deyo, secretary of the Hilo board of trade, has been appointed corresponding member of the local promotion committee, and that E. B. Bevis, of Kahului has been appointed by the chamber of commerce of Maui as corresponding secretary.
This is the outcome of a recent proposal by the local committee that the commercial organizations of the other islands designate representatives to participate in promotion work with the local committee.

Travelling toward Waialeale to join the legislators at the Boys' Industrial School, Mayor Fern, James Fern, his son, and Supervisors Petrie and Markham were saved yesterday from a serious accident by a narrow margin. A steering knuckle broke in the mayor's machine as they rounded a turn near Waialeale, and only the quick action of his son, who was driving the car, saved the machine from running through a fence and probably overturning. The mayor said that they were going at a low rate of speed. The accident caused the party to arrive at the school late for the luncheon.

It is predicted that with the inauguration of the trans-Pacific service between Vancouver and Japan and China ports, with the Canadian-Pacific liners Empress of Asia and Empress of Russia, the vessels will greatly reduce the time heretofore consumed in crossing the pond and establish a new record.

The Empress of Russia is understood to have sailed from Liverpool on April 1st, with Vancouver as destination, the new liner scheduled to proceed to the western ocean by the way of Suez canal.

The Empress of Asia is also reported to have been completely booked for the longer passage from Liverpool to Vancouver via the Cape of Good Hope and the finishing touches are being made upon her at the shipyards.

It is understood that the speed of the new liners Empress of Russia and Empress of Asia will enable these big and modern craft to cover the distance between Yokohama and Vancouver in nine days and a few hours, which is several days faster than the present service between this port and the Orient.

Confidence Well Founded The implicit confidence that many people have in Chamberlain's Colic, fected. For sale by all dealers. Ben-

PAIA NATIONAL BANK WILL BE LAUNCHED

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] WAILUKU, April 18.—C. D. Lufkin, the cashier of the First National Bank of Wailuku, who is so deeply interested in the new Paia National Bank, is emphatic in saying there is no truth in the rumor that was in circulation last week and which seemed to be well founded, that there will be no bank in Paia. Mr. Lufkin says that all plans are being made for the new bank and that stock is ready for subscription. The directors of the Wai-luku bank, who are very strong men, are behind the Paia bank project.

A fire that might have proved dangerous broke out last Saturday night in the Maui Theater near the piano.
Just how the damage was done is not clear, but the new piano which cost $500 and was a handsome inner player, was injured beyond repair. The incident happened just at the close of the performance and fortunately people had pretty well left the building. The piano was insured.

One of the most interesting lectures on Palestine ever given here was that by Colonel Blanche M. Cox of the Salvation Army. She spoke in the Wai-luku town hall last Wednesday evening before a fair audience. It was a city more people were not present as the lecture was most interesting and the slides were made by herself and were the best on the Holy Land ever shown on Maui. Many of them were beautifully colored and her description was excellent.

Colonel Cox repeated the lecture the night following at the army headquarters in Wailuku and on Friday night conducted a regular army meeting. She hopes to visit the island again in August.

NEW PAHOA LUMBER MILL IN OPERATION

With greater capacity than the former one, the new lumber mill at Paia is now running at almost full strength, only one piece of machinery being yet to arrive from the mainland. It was in operation forty-three days after the fire that destroyed the original mill with a large quantity of sawed lumber. Besides cutting the usual lines of lumber, the mill is turning out paving blocks for the Rapid Trunk company of Honolulu and boards and blocks for the Panama-Pacific Exposition. Manager Sam Johnson arrived in the Wilhelmina to attend a meeting of the directors of the Hawaii Hardwood Company today. Since the fire he has turned out a large amount of work in a hastily equipped temporary mill.
